

BASIC LIBRARY SEARCHING

Start your search at <https://library.imi.ie>

You can search the majority of the library collection here for by title, author, keyword or subject.

A title search will usually give you an immediate result.

Pick the CONTENT TYPE you are looking for, e.g. Book / eBook; Journal Article etc.

REFINE YOUR SEARCH to At the Library for print material physically held in the library or Full Text Online for electronic material.

Electronic sources like journal articles and e-books will always include a Full Text Online link to the PDF / digital copy.

Print books will include availability information + a call number that indicates where in the library the book is.

Good strategy, bad strategy: the difference and why it matters
by Rumelt, Richard P

2011

eBook: Full Text Online

Book: Available, 658.012.2 RUM, Main Collection (+5 More)

GETTING A BOOK

Management

Leadership

Books are organised on the shelves by subject and within each subject section they are organised alphabetically by author surname. Browsing is very

The call number tells you where exactly a book is on the shelf. It is printed on the spine. The call number is a number sequence + the first 3 letters of the author's surname. Ask for help if you get stuck looking for a book.

If you are off campus you can put holds on books to request them or to put yourself next in line if a book you want is checked out.