There are some key pieces of information available via the book record:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Book description including number of pages • Subjects area(s) of the book • Item type 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Date due back • Call number of the book • Current status of book copies
---	---

The last two are of particular importance. If a copy is listed as available, you can check the shelf number in order to locate the book. In the example above it is 658.3 ARM. Please note that the three letters after each shelf number represent the first three letters of the author's surname. As a result, all books within a particular section are organized alphabetically.

As illustrated above, there is one copy available. In some cases, a copy will appear as not for loan. The reason for this is due to the fact that the item type is reference. Any items on the reference shelf are not for circulation and will always remain in the library for consultation.

Placing holds on books

In the instance where a book is not available, it is possible to reserve it. You can do this in two ways. On the right hand side of the item record screen, select [place hold] and sign into your account if you have not already done so.

The second option is to contact the library with the author and title of the book.

Once the book arrives back, you will receive an automated email alerting you to the fact that the book is available.

If you need any help using the book catalogue, please don't hesitate to contact the Information Desk in the library. You can call to the desk in person, or contact us by phone (01-2078513) or e-mail knowledge@imi.ie
